

SEAoNY President's Breakfast Roundtable Event:
State of the Industry
Tuesday, April 4th 2017
8:00AM-10:00AM

The central theme of the round-table event will be the current state of the industry. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss various topics relevant to the structural engineering industry today:

- Have project schedules become too aggressive?
- Are structural engineers satisfied with their workplace experience?
- Should SE licensure be required in New York State?
- How could we better promote our profession?

Each of these four discussion topics will be led by a knowledgeable moderator, and participants will have the opportunity to rotate between each discussion. Members are encouraged to attend and participate by sharing their thoughts, experiences, and ideas.

Moderators include:

- Project Schedules - Delia Shumway, New Line Structures
- Workplace Retention and Satisfaction - Vicki Arbitrio, GMS
- SE Licensure - Brian Falconer, Severud Associates
- Industry Awareness - Aine Brazil, Thornton Tomasetti

A light breakfast will be served!

2 PDHs offered (pending)

Registration opens at 7:45 am. Seminar begins promptly at 8:00am

Go to www.seaony.org to register!

Advanced Registration will close the day before the event.

For SEAoNY members, registration is $25 in advance or $35 at the door.

For non-members, registration is $40 in advance or $50 at the door.

For student members, registration is $5.

This event will have a limited capacity, walk-ins will be accommodated depending on advanced registration numbers.

This Seminar will be held at the Center for Architecture,
536 LaGuardia Place.